The President's Chinese Message.

The President yesterday sent in his veto of the Chinese bill. He vetoed it on the ground that the length of time—it took to pass the bill—was an infringement of the plain rights of the people. He also stated that the bill was not a measure of the Chinese, but a measure of the people. He also stated that the bill was not a measure of the Chinese, but a measure of the people. He also stated that the bill was not a measure of the Chinese, but a measure of the people. He also stated that the

TERRIBLY BROKEN UP

OVER CABINET UNCERTAINTIES.

Fort Pillow Chalmers' Bill. Way to Lynch.

The Star Route Cases Under Adversement—

Senator's Case Against Ball, the Alaska Delegate, Batted Home.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The members of Congress who are interested in the action of the President, are badly torn up and worried over the delay by the President in the making up of his Cabinet. They keep the city continually flooded with all sorts of rumors, many of which have no foundation whatsoever. One of the most absurd says today that Mr. Teller and Mr. Chandler have both been promised the Interior portfolio; that Mr. Chandler and Mr. Deale have both been promised the navy, and that the President is so badly mixed up in the matter that he does not know which direction to take. It may be distinctly stated, however, that matters have not greatly changed, and that Mr. Teller at an early day will become secretary of the Interior. The question between Mr. Chandler and Mr. Beale, in regard to the Navy Department not having yet been settled by the President, however, good authority says to-night that Mr. Chandler will be the man, and that both nominations will go in to-morrow.

CHALMERS MUST GO.

The Representative of the Mississippi

Shooting District Unseated.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Mr. Chalmers does not seem to be as highly favored as his Mongolian brother upon the Pacific coast. Mr. Chalmers must go. After a most thorough and complete investigation of the contested election case of Lynch vs.

Chalmers from the Sixth district of Mississippi, the Committee on Elections to-day decided to recommend to the House that the colored Representative from the Shooting district of Mississippi be given the seat now occupied by the hero of Fort Pillow. The report of the sub-committee was adopted by a vote of ten to two. Atterton, of Ohio, and Moulton, of Illinois, being the Democrats voting against it. Beltrami was absent and Paul, of Virginia, and Davis, Missouri, did not vote.

It will be remembered that Chalmers did not claim to have a majority in the district at all, acknowledging that Lynch had received 600 more votes than himself.

He claimed the election, however, upon pure technicality, the Democratic supervisors of election having taken every possible opportunity to refuse to count tickets, on the ground either that they were too wide, too long, unlawfully marked, or printed in type not allowable by the election laws. The report of the committee will be brought in the House to the utmost by the Democrats, and with the pressure of business now on hand, it will be very doubtful if it receives consideration at this session of Congress.

The Gentleman from Alaska.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Mr. Ball, the gentleman from Alaska, who was "batted" by the Committee on Elections to the Committee on Territories a few days since, was not "muffled" by any means, and was today sent "home" with considerable celerity. His bill to make the southwestern portion of Alaska, a territory, was re-committed to a sub-committee to-day, with instructions to include the whole territory in the bill, and to strike out the portion of the bill providing for a Representative. This fixes Abel for all time, and leaves him four thousand miles from home without honor, without salary and without military. It was a mere speculation and did not pen out.

Colored Ballots in Profusion.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

COLUMBUS, April 4.—The Democratic members of the Legislature are jubilant today over the victory they gained at the polls yesterday. Small flags are unfurled over every desk in the House. The general belief among the Democratic members is that the Pond bill will enable the Democrats to carry the State next fall, while the Republicans think otherwise. In Urbana the entire Democratic ticket was elected except the mayor who favored the Pond bill, while the Republican who opposed it was elected.

Associated Press Dispatches.—CINCINNATI,

April 4.—Complete returns on member of board of Public Works shows the result of yesterday's election. The total vote polled was 36,000, which is about 14,000 below an ordinary full vote. The Democratic major
